

THE GREAT CO-MISSION

Snake River
Birds of Prey

Overview:

- Jesus' last words have been forgotten, ignored, or deeply misunderstood by the 21st-century church. Some say the Great Commission was only for the Apostles. While others do not understand the Great Commission was and still is a reaction to our King's mercy, grace, and resurrection. From the overflowing joy of our salvation, the Great Commission is lived out in the daily lives of the Christs' ambassadors! Yet, others do not realize without our love for one another, the Great Commission is dim light in this dark world. Whatever the belief is, before Jesus ascended to Heaven, He left the church one Great Co-Mission: "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to all creation" (Mark 16:15 NASB).

Today, 51% of all Christians don't understand what the Great Commission is. Even 64% of "Bible-minded" Christians have forgotten the meaning of this all-important command. The truth is obvious. Now more than ever, both - unbelievers and Disciples need to recover the heart, soul, and meaning of the Great Co-Mission and find our part in it.

We who follow Jesus Christ are the church, and we are the light and hope of the world because we are the vehicle by which God brings the solution to humanity's greatest problems: sin, sorrow, and death.
